Risk Disclosure

Fundex's content is intended to be generic in nature. The information provided by Fundex does not constitute a recommendation, endorsement, or sponsorship of any specific security, company, or fund. Testimonials on Fundex's websites may not represent all clients or consumers, particularly lesser-known ones. Fundex, its partners, representatives, agents, employees, and contractors accept no responsibility or liability for any use or misuse of the information provided.

Futures and FX trading are not suitable for all investors. An investor may lose all or part of their initial investment. Trading should only be conducted with risk capital, which is money that can be lost without jeopardizing one's financial stability or lifestyle. Fundex does not solicit or offer to buy or sell futures, options, or forex. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

Under CFTC Rule 4.41, there are restrictions on hypothetical or simulated performance outcomes. Simulated outcomes do not represent actual trading and may under- or over-compensate for market conditions, such as lack of liquidity. Simulated trading programs are typically designed with the benefit of hindsight. There is no guarantee that any account will or is likely to achieve similar profits or losses.

Risk Warning:

All information provided on Fundex's website is intended solely for educational purposes related to trading in financial markets. It does not constitute specific investment recommendations, business advice, investment opportunity analysis, or general recommendations regarding the trading of investment instruments. Fundex offers services related to simulated trading and educational tools for traders but does not act as a broker nor accept any deposits.

Before purchasing a subscription, traders should carefully assess their trading objectives, experience level, and risk appetite. It is important to note that historically, only 23 out of every 100 participants advance to the next stage of our challenge, indicating a possibility of losing more than the initial investment. Therefore, Fundex strongly advises against investing more than one can afford to lose and encourages traders to fully understand the risks involved and take necessary precautions to manage them.

Explanation:

This risk disclosure statement outlines the potential risks associated with trading financial instruments such as futures and FX. It emphasizes that trading involves the risk of losing part or all of the initial investment and should only be conducted with risk capital. The statement also highlights regulatory restrictions on simulated performance outcomes and warns traders to be cautious of the risks involved in trading, especially when using leverage. Additionally, it clarifies that Fundex provides educational resources and simulated trading services but does not act as a broker or accept deposits. Traders are advised to assess their risk tolerance and understand that trading involves inherent risks, including the possibility of losing more than the initial investment.
